I'm

with you once again, my friends, No more my foot - steps roam; Where it began, my journey ends A - mid the scenes of home. No other clime has skies so blue, Or streams so broad and clear, And where are hearts so warm and true As those that meet me here? And

cres. f

where are hearts so warm and true As those that meet me here?

loco. Since

last, with spirits wild and free, I press'd my na - tive strand, I've wan-dered ma - ny miles at sea, And ma - ny miles on land I've seen all na - tions of the earth, Of eve - ry hue and tongue, Which taught me how to prize the worth Of that from which I sprung. Which taught me how to prize the worth Of that from which I sprung. gra...

loco. My na - tive land, I turn to you, With blessing and with prayer, Where man is brave and woman true, And free as mountain air. Long may our flag in triumph wave, A - gainst the world com - bined, And con espressione.

friends a welcome— foes a grave, With - in our bor - ders find, And friends a welcome— foes a grave, With - in our bor - ders find. gra...
